COUNTING THE VOTES

Further Returns From Tuesday's Election.

SOME OFFICIAL FIGURES.

Those Places Not Yet Heard From an Estimate is Made by Which a Good Idea is Formed of Just What the Result Is. Some Consolation for Both Parties.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 6.—The Republican state committee, on unofficial returns received from seventy-five counties and the balance estimated, claim the Republican plurality on the head of the state ticket will be between 14,000 and 15,000. The committee concedes the defeat of McKinley by about 200 and Foster by 75 or 100.

The Democratic candidates in the other close congressional districts received majories ranging from 500 upwards, with the exception of Cosgrave, at Cincinnati, who is defeated by Storer, Republican, by 2,700. One of the most remarkable Democratic gains was in the Eleventh district, where Pattison, Democrat, was elected by 3,100, with a gain of 1,500 over last fall's vote. The Republican committee concede the delegation to congress will stand 7 Republicans to 14 Democrats.

On the returns received on private advices, the Democratic committee estimate the Republican plurality on the head of the ticket will be about 10,000, and think it will fall below these figures. On unofficial figures they claim McKinley is defeated by 318 and Foster by 300 or 400. Their estimate as to the numerical standing of the delegation is the same as that of the Republican committee.

The Democrats have elected congressmen in the following districts:

Third—George W. Houk.
Fourth—Martin K. Gantz.
Fifth—Ferd C. Layton.
Sixth—D. D. Donavan.
Seventh—William E. Haynes.
Eighth—Darius D. Hare.
Ninth—J. H. Outhwaite.
Eleventh—John M. Pattison.
Thirteenth—Irvine Dungan.
Fourteenth—James W. Owens.
Fifteenth—M. D. Harter.
Sixteenth—J. G. Warwick.
Seventeenth—A. J. Pearson.
Twenty-first—Thomas L. Johnson.

Republicans elected congressmen in the following districts:

First—Bellamy Storer.
Second—John A. Caldwell.
Tenth—Robert E. Doan.
Twelfth—W. H. Enochs.
Eighteenth—J. D. Taylor.
Nineteenth—E. B. Taylor.
Twentieth—V. C. Taylor.

This makes seven Republicans and fourteen Democrats. At this writing however, the election of Hare and Warwick is not established by complete returns, and the apparent majority in each case is so small as to make it unsafe to claim an election until the official count is made.

From official and unofficial returns received from all the counties of the state except ten, and estimating them the same as they were last year on the vote for governor, the plurality of D. J. Ryan, Republican candidate for secretary of state, is 15,129.

WOOSTER, O., Nov. 6.—Owing to the non-arrival of the returns from two precincts official count could not be made yesterday. Warwick will have 391 majority over McKinley; Cronley 327 over Ryan. This is based on returns received at Democratic headquarters. The chairman of the Republican committee says Warwick will not have over 380. Greater interest is manifested than in any election ever held in this county.

CANTON, O., Nov. 6.—Mckinley's great gain of 2,700 up to to-night, lacks 147 of electing him. The official count may change this. There has been trouble in getting news from Holmes county.

Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6.—The latest returns from the twenty-eight congressional districts of the state show the election of eighteen Republicans and ten Democrats. The present delegation from this state stands twenty-one Republicans and seven Democrats. Following are the congressmen elected with the majorities received. Both contestants claim the Seventeenth district, but complete returns which, however, are not official, give Elliott 100 majority.

First—Bingham, Republican, 7,650.
Second—O'Neill, Republican, 6,527.
Third—McAleer, Democrat, 3,236.
Fourth—Reyburn, Republican, 12,894.
Fifth—Harmer, Republican, 11,876.
Sixth—Robinson, Republican, 3,650.
Seventh—Hallowell, Democrat, 125.
Eighth—Mutchler, Democrat, 6,613.
Ninth—Brunner, Democrat, 9,380.
Tenth—Brosius, Republican, 9,952.
Eleventh—Amerman, Democrat, 374.
Twelfth—Shonk, Republican, 1,422.
Thirteenth—Reilly, Democrat, 1,500.
Fourteenth—Rife, Republican, 3,670.
Fifteenth—Wright, Republican, 1,800.
Sixteenth—Elliott, Democrat, 100.
Seventeenth—Wolverton, Democrat, 5,600.
Eighteenth—Atkinson, Republican 400.
Nineteenth—Beltzhoover, Democrat, 3,150.
Twentieth—Scull, Republican, 500.
Twenty-first—Huff, Republican 1,500.
Twenty-second—Dalzell, Republican, 6,000.
Twenty-third—William A. Stone, Republican, 7,000.
Twenty-fourth—Stewart, Republican, 2,000.
Twenty-fifth—Phillips, Independent Republican, 1,800.
Twenty-sixth—Griswold, Republican, 2,000.
Twenty-seventh—Charles W. Stone, Republican 2,500.
Twenty-eighth—George T. Kribbs, Democrat, 4,900.

Kansas.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 6.—The Republican candidate for governor is beaten; six out of seven Republican congressional candidates defeated; Senator Ingall's re-election a subject of grave doubt. That is the situation in Kansas. Eighty-two thousand Republican majority has been overcome. The Farmers' Alliance did it and it was a genuine surprise. The chances for the Democrats gaining in some districts was bright, but no such overrunning of Republican majorities was expected. For the first time in many years the Republican delegation is broken. Only one Republican is elected—Hon. F. H. Funston, from the second district.

The Democrats were successful in the [illegible] electing Thomas Moonlight [illegible] Republican, by 10,000 [illegible]. The Farmers' Alliance carried the other five districts, electing Clover over Perkins, Republican, in the Third; Otis over Kelly in the Fourth; Davis over Phillips, Republican, in the Fifth; Baker over McNall in the Sixth, and Simpson over Hollowell in the Seventh. The Kansas delegation will stand: Republicans 1, Democrats 1, Farmers' Alliance 5.

The Farmers' Alliance and the Democrats waged a bitter campaign against Senator Ingalls, whose term expires in 1891, and in a majority of the districts contained one of their candidates against the Republican candidate. The result is the certain election of ninety-five Farmers' Alliance and Democratic legislators against thirty Republicans. Some of the latter may vote for Ingalls, but his opponents claim that there will be a majority of 6 against him.

Illinois.

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—The Democrats do not yet concede that the Republicans have carried the Illinois general assembly on joint ballot and the result seems greatly in doubt. Gen. Palmer, the Democratic candidate for United States senator, says his information is too meagre to express an opinion on the result of the election.

A Daily News dispatch from Bloomington, Ill., says: Congressman Rowell, Republican, of the Fourteenth district, failed to secure re-election. His opponent carried the district by 300 votes.

Both parties are claiming a legislative majority on joint ballot, and the Democrats are hopeful of electing Gen. Palmer to succeed Senator Farwell. The Republican state central committee insists that it will control the general assembly by five or six on joint ballot, but the Democrats as vigorously insist they will have a majority of one to three. The result is still in doubt. The house will certainly be very close, with the chances in favor of the Democrats, on the face of the incomplete returns.

The latest returns from the Sixteenth district indicate that Democratic congressman Fithian has been defeated by Reeder, the Farmer's Mutual Benefit association candidate, by a majority of 256. This is probably correct, and will leave the Illinois delegation eleven Democrats, three Republicans, and one Farmers' Mutual Benefit association.

Cannon Gives It Up.

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—A personal message has been received here from Mr. Cannon, from Danville, Ill., in which he says Busey's majority will be about 300.

Colorado.

DENVER, Nov. 6.—Returns come in slowly and up to 6 o'clock last night neither of the state headquarters had received complete returns from a single county. The count for Arapahoe county has not yet been completed, and out of the seventy-six precincts but twenty-five have been received from the city and county. These give Townsend, Republican, for congress 4,898; O'Donnell, Democrat, 3,705. For governor, Routt, Republican, 4,720; Yeaman, Democrat, 3,801. Returns so far received from outside counties give the head of the Republican ticket a plurality of 1,753. At the Democratic headquarters Chairman Arbuckle claims they have undoubtedly elected nine of the ten members of the legislative ticket in this county. The Republicans deny this but admit the vote will be so close that the result cannot be determined until the official count has been made.

Returns from every precinct in Lake county except one, which is Democratic, gave O'Donnell a majority of 750; Yeaman, 1,450.

Returns so far received from El Paso county give Townsend a majority over O'Donnell of 782; Routt over Yeaman, 776.

Partial returns from Las Animas county give O'Donnell a majority of 47; Yeamen, 459.

Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 6.—The Democrats will have a majority in both branches of the legislature of about 25. The following congressmen are elected, the First district being in doubt, but probably carried by Barrett, Democrat.

First district, doubtful.
Second district, J. R. Bretz, Democrat.
Third district, J. R. Brown, Democrat, reelected.
Fourth district, William S. Holman, Democrat, reelected.
Fifth district—George W. Cooper, Democrat, reelected.
Sixth district—Henry N. Johnson, Republican.
Seventh district—William D. Bynum, Democrat, re-elected.
Eighth district—E. V. Brookshire, Democrat, reelected.
Ninth district—Daniel Waugh, Republican.
Tenth district—David Patten, Democrat.
Eleventh district—Augustus N. Martin, Democrat, reelected.
Twelfth district—C. A. O. McClellan, Democrat, reelected.
Thirteenth district—D. F. Shively, Democrat, reelected.

Reports from all parts of the state show that the entire Democratic state ticket is elected by big majorities and Chairman Michener, of the Republican committee, concedes the defeat of his party by about 15,000.

New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Returns show that the Democrats have elected sixty-seven assemblymen in this state and the Republicans fifty-nine. Two districts are still somewhat in doubt, with probability in favor of the Republicans. To secure a majority on joint ballot the Democrats require sixty-eight, the Republicans sixty-two, as the Republicans have nineteen senators, the Democrats thirteen. It looks therefore like a tie on joint ballot. A United States senator depends on the result.

ALBANY, Nov. 6.—Col. Williams, the governor's private secretary says that the next assembly will have sixty-six Democratic members sure. He estimates that the Republicans have elected fifty-nine members, and claims that the result in the First, Duchess county district, the First Wayne county district and the Montgomery county district is still in doubt.

Wisconsin.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 6.—At 1 o'clock this afternoon Chairman Payne conceded the state senate as well as the assembly to the Democrats. Thomas, Republican, for congress in the Seventh district, is defeated by a small majority. La Follette, Republican, is beaten in the Third by 1,200, and it is believed that McCord has been defeated in the Ninth. Advices received this noon state that Haugen is sure of re-election by a small majority.

Chairman Wall, of the Democratic state committee, claims a majority of 35,000 for Peck, and also insists on claiming six out of the nine congressmen.

The latest returns indicate a plurality of 20,000 and upwards for George W. Peck, Democrat. The Democrats elect a majority of the assemblymen and the state senate. In the lower house they will have a majority of 30 or over, and in the senate a majority of 2. They elect seven out of nine congressmen. The Wisconsin delegation in the next congress will be as follows: First district, H. A. Cooper, Republican; Second, Charles Barwig, Democrat; Third, A. R. Bushnell, Democrat; Fourth, John L. Mitchell, Democrat; Fifth, George H. Brickner, Democrat; Sixth, L. R. Miller, Democrat; Seventh, Frank Coburn, Democrat; Eighth, doubtful; Ninth, Thomas Lynch, Democrat.

Tennessee.

NASHVILLE, Nov. 6.—Returns are coming in very slowly. John P. Buchanan, Democrat, for governor will have between 25,000 and 30,000 majority. The legislature is two-thirds Democratic and both houses. The congressional delegation will stand as follows: First district, R. R. Butler, Independent Republican; Second district, L. C. Houk, Republican; Third district, H. C. Snodgrass, Democrat; Fourth district, Benton McMillin, Democrat; Fifth district, James D. Richardson, Democrat; Sixth district, Joseph E. Washington, Democrat; Seventh district, N. N. Cox; Democrat; Eighth district; B. A. Enloe, Demotrat; Ninth district, R. A. Pierce, Democrat, Tenth district, Josiah Patterson, Democrat.

Massachusetts.

BOSTON, Nov. 6.—The vote for governor has now been received from every town in the state except Gosnold, and the figures show an overwhelming Democratic victory. Russell's plurality is 9,850. Brackett's plurality in 1889 was 6,775. Results in the congressional districts are: First, Randall, Republican; Second, E. A. Morse, Republican; Third, Andrew, Democrat; Fourth, O'Neill, Democrat; Fifth, Hoar, Democrat; Sixth, Lodge, Republican; Seventh, Cogswell, Republican; Eighth, Stevens, Democrat; Ninth, Williams, Democrat; Tenth, Walker, Republican; Eleventh, Coolidge, Democrat; Twelfth, Crosby, Democrat. The congressional delegation thus stands, seven Democrats, five Republicans, a gain of five Democrats.

Iowa.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Nov. 6.—Returns from one-third of the state show Democratic gains sufficient, if continued, to wipe out the Republican majority of two years ago and give a small Democratic majority. The congressional delegation will stand as follows, as it now appears: First, Zerily, Democrat; Second, Hayes, Democrat; Third, Henderson, Republican; Fourth, Butler, Democrat; Fifth, Hamilton, Democrat; Sixth, White, Democrat; Seventh, Hayes, short term, and Hull, full term, both Republicans; Eighth, Flick, Republican; Ninth, Bowman, Democrat; Tenth, Dolliver, Republican; Eleventh, Perkins, Republican.

Delaware.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 6.—Complete returns from the whole state give Reynolds, Democrat, for governor, 445 majority, and Causey, Democrat, for congress, 514 majority. The city of Wilmington has gone 414 Republican on the head of the ticket. The Republicans elect their county ticket in New Castle county by 326 majority. The next legislature will stand: Senate—Democrats 5, Republicans 4; house—Democrats 14, Republicans 7. There is no United States senator to be elected. The Prohibitionists, who had a full ticket in the field, polled about 150 votes in the whole state.

Florida.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 6.—Five counties—Duval, Putnam, Volusia, Alachua and Marion—heretofore either wholly or in part Republican, give handsome Democratic majorities. The greatest revolution in this county, Duval, which has heretofore given from 1,800 to 2,000 Republican majority. The returns from Tuesday's election show a Democratic majority of from 1,100 to 1,443, the latter being Mabries for supreme court. This is a Democratic gain of from 2,900 to 3,253 for the various candidates. Putnam county, heretofore Republican, is Democratic by an average majority of 451.

Arkansas.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 6.—The Gazette, Democrat, says: In Arkansas we have re-elected Cate in the First, and Breckinridge in the Second district and restored a solid Democratic delegation. Returns received at Republican headquarters indicate the election of Langly, Union Labor, in Second district, over Breckinridge, Democrat, and Featherstone, Union Labor, in the First district, over Cate, Democrat. The Farmers' Alliance voted solidly with the Democratic party. If Langly and Featherstone are elected they owe their election to the Republican vote.

Washington.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 6.—Returns from 180 precincts give Wilson, Republican, for congress, 11,750; Carroll, Democrat, 8,509. If this ratio is maintained Wilson's majority will exceed 6,000. The legislature will probably stand: Senate—Republicans, 31; Democrats, 3. House—Republicans, 60; Democrats, 28. It is thought these figures will not be materially changed by complete returns.

New Jersey.

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 6.—English, for congress, has 1,803 majority. The next state senate will stand: Democrats, 13; Republicans, 7; Independent Democrat, 1. The assembly will stand: Democrats, 39; Republicans, 21. Prominent politicians attribute the great Democratic victory to the McKinley and force bills. The election passed off quietly. Some arrests for bribery are threatened.

North Carolina.

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 6.—Returns from 400 precincts, one-fourth of the total number, give a net Democratic gain of 13,000. Newborne, Democrat, continues to make large gains in the congressional vote in the Second district. It is impossible as yet to predict the result there, as some heavily Republican counties have not been heard from.

West Virginia.

WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 6.—The indications are that the Democrats have made a clean sweep. Hubbard, Republican, for congress in the First district, has been defeated by fully 500 majority. Smith, Republican, for congress in the Fourth district, still claims his election by a small majority. The state senate will probably be a tie.

Nebraska.

OMAHA, Nov. 6.—Returns from 352 precincts in Nebraska show Boyd, Democrat, 4,000 ahead of Richards, Republican.

Charles Ogden, chairman of the state Democratic committee, claims Boyd's election by from 5,000 to 7,000 plurality. He also claims three congressmen and the entire state ticket.

Connecticut.

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 6.—The Connecticut legislature is 10 to 16 Republican on joint ballot. Morris, Democrat, for governor, is 53 short of a popular majority. Official returns continue to bring in scattering votes, and it is evident that no election has been made. If so the legislature will elect Merwin, Republican.

New Mexico.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. N., Nov. 6.—The editor of The Albuquerque Democrat says the indications are that Josephs, Democrat, has carried ten of the fourteen counties in New Mexico, and that the Democrats will have a majority of the senate and house for the first time in twenty-four years.

Wisconsin.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 6.—E. C. Wall chairman of the Democratic state central committee, claims the state by 35,000 plurality. C. C. Payne, chairman of the Republican state central committee, concedes the state to the Democrats—legislature and all, but gives no figures.

North and South Dakota.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 6.—In North Dakota the Republicans elected congressmen and state ticket by from 2,000 to 4,000. Scarcely any returns have been received from South Dakota, and nothing is known about that state.

Montana.

HELENA, Mont., Nov. 6.—With all the counties heard from save two, and allowing the Republicans the same majorities they had last year, Dixon, Democrat, is elected to congress by 450 over Carter, Republican.

Nevada.

RENO, Nev., Nov. 6.—Advices from various points of Nevada indicate the election of Col. Cord, Republican, for governor and Bartine, Republican, for congress by majorities between 5,000 and 6,000.

Michigan.

MARQUETTE, Mich., Nov. 6.—Belated returns indicate the election of Stephenson for congress by a reduced majority. Brastad, for state treasurer, runs ahead of his ticket, and is probably elected.

Almost Solid.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 6.—Six of the seven congressmen in this state are certainly Democrats, and the seventh in doubt.

California.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—The Democrats concede the election of entire state Republican ticket.

THE NEXT CONGRESS.

The Democrats Will Have a Majority of Over One Hundred and Thirty.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Returns received up to midnight would indicate that that the Democrats have a majority of over 120 in the next congress. Phenomenal gains have been made in many states. The representation from all of the states would seem at this hour to be about as follows.

Alabama, eight Democrats.
Arkansas, five Democrats.
California, two Democrats, four Republicans.
Colorado, one Republican.
Connecticut, three Democrats, one Republican.
Delaware, one Democrat.
Florida, two Democrats.
Georgia, ten Democrats.
Idaho, one Republican.
Illinois, twelve Democrats, three Republicans.
Iowa, six Democrats, five Republicans.
Kansas, one Democrat, five Alliance, one Republican.
Kentucky, nine Democrats, two Republicans.
Louisian, six Democrats.
Maine, four Republicans.
Maryland, six Democrats.
Massachusetts, seven Democrats, five Republicans.
Minnesota, three Democrats, two Republicans.
Michigan, seven Democrats, four Republicans.
Mississippi, seven Democrats.
Missouri, fourteen Democrats.
Montana, one Democrat.
Nebraska, two Democrats, one Republican.
Nevada, one Republican.
New Hampshire, one Democrat, one Republican.
New Jersey, five Democrats, two Republicans.
New York, twenty-two Democrats, twelve Republicans.
North Carolina, eight Democrats, one Republican.
North Dakota, one Republican.
Ohio, fourteen Democrats, seven Republicans.
Oregon, one Republican.
Pennsylvania, eighteen Republicans, ten Democrats.
Rhode Island, one Democrat, no selection in the Second district.
South Carolina, seven Democrats.
South Dakota, two Republicans.
Tennessee, eight Democrats, two Republicans.
Texas, eleven Democrats.
Vermont, two Republicans.
Virginia, ten Democrats.
Washington, one Republican.
West Virginia, four Democrats.
Wisconsin, seven Democrats, two Republicans.
Wyoming, one Republican.
Totals, 230 Democrats, five Alliance, ninety-six Republicans.
Democratic majority over Republicans, 134.

RELIGIOUS RIOTS.

A Village Plundered and Twenty-five Natives Killed—Other Foreign News.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 6.—At the close of a Buddhist festival in the province of Se Chun, the excited religionists were led by fanatics to attack villages in which numbers of natives had been converted to Christianity by the missionaries.

These places were burned and plundered by organized mobs, and twenty-five converts were killed, their bodies being thrown into the Yangtsekiang.

Another Conflict.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—Another conflict has occurred at Spandau between the soldiers of the garrison and the citizens. Eighteen of the latter were wounded and a number of the soldiers were hurt. The fight was occasioned by the soldiers taking umbrage at some action on the part of the citizens, which was not, however, intended to give offense. A similar encounter, with still more bloody results, occurred a few weeks ago.

Too Much to Do.

BERLIN, Nov. 6.—Professor Koch, wishing to devote more time to the development of his alleged discovery of a cure by inoculation for pulmonary diseases, has asked to be relieved from some of his regular duties as professor at the Berlin university. It is stated that Professor Koch is experimenting on similar methods of cure for cholera, diphtheria, typhoid fever, etc.

Gladstone Censured.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—Sir George Errington, English delegate to the Vatican under Mr. Gladstone's government, in a speech last night censured Mr. Gladstone for condemning Sir Linton Simmons' mission to Rome. He was assured that the European powers did not consider that treating the pope as a sovereign was derogatory to them.

Royalty on the Road.

MUNICH, Nov. 6.—Chancellor Von Caprivi, who is on his way to meet Signor Crispi, at Milan, arrived here yesterday, and was received and escorted to the Prussian legation by Baron Grailsheim, minister of foreign affairs.

Socialists Rejoicing.

BERLIN, Nov. 6.—The Socialists are rejoicing over a signal success in the election at Kiel yesterday. Both the Socialist candidates for the reichstag were chosen by good majorities, something unprecedented in that place.

Gilhooley Ill.

DUBLIN, Nov. 6.—Mr. James Gilhooley, member of the house of commons for West Cork, is in a precarious condition, the result of injuries received by being thrown from his horse.

Horses Burned to Death.

DUBLIN, Nov. 6.—A fire late last night in Swan's stables at One Hundred and Sixty-ninth street and Jerome avenue, burned thirty-five horses and a large quantity of hay. Loss, $10,000.

Prize Fighters Arrested.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—The pugilists Lambert, of Canada, and O'Neill, of Lancasheir, were arrested at Liverpool yesterday while preparing for a fight at the Lyceum.

Cutting Affray at Walton, Ky.

WALTON, Ky., Nov. 6.—In an exciting fight Sunday morning John Halton was cut seventeen times by three Bailey brothers and two Wilsons. Sunday night a drunken crowd from Crittenden attempted to take possession of Walton.

ELEVATORS BURNED.

Buffalo, New York, Visited by a Fire.

QUARTER OF A MILLION LOSS.

The Fire Still Raging and Beyond the Control of the Firemen, Two of Whom are Fatally Injured by Falling Walls. Other Fires.

BUFFALO, Nov. 6.—The Wells elevator, the largest in the city, has been totally destroyed by fire. Two other large elevators and a number of adjoining ware houses are now in flames, and the fire is spreading rapidly along the lake front.

The Wells elevator had a capacity of 500,000 bushels. The loss will reach $250,000. Two firemen are reported fatally hurt and it is believed that a number of others are under the falling walls. The Wilkenson elevator at the foot of Main street, and adjoining malt houses, are threatened.

Heavy Loss at New Rochelle, N. Y.

NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y., Nov. 6.—About 9 o'clock yesterday morning a fire was discovered in the grocery store of George Ferguson. The flames rapidly spread to other buildings, baffling the efforts of the firemen to check them, and help was asked of the neighboring towns and quickly forthcoming.

In one of the buildings burned, a large storage house, was stored a large amount of furniture, silverware and bric-a-brac, belonging to Delancey Kane and Adrian Iselin, the banker, of New York, which was entirely destroyed. Much of this property, which was valued pecuniarily at $250,000, cannot be replaced. The loss on the other property burned is estimated at $125,000, making the total loss $375,000.

Two Incendiary Fires.

DENVER, Nov. 6.—The large furniture warehouse of J. N. Kilpatrick was burned yesterday. Loss, $50,000. The dwellings of J. H. Jackson and B. A. Woodson, capitalist, were also destroyed. These fires, in different portions of the city, broke out almost simultaneously and were evidently the work of incendiaries.

Three Mills Destroyed.

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 6.—Three mills belonging to the J. B. Williams company, of Glastonbury, Conn., used for the manufacture of soap powder and ivorine, were burned last night. Loss $100,000; insured for about half.

MORE MONEY FOR THE FAIR.

Chicagoans Vote $5,500,000 Additional. Plans for Buildings.

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—The first result of the election to be known for a certainty was the success of the proposition to increase the backing of the world's fair to $10,500,000. The vote of the city was practically unanimous in favor of adding to the fund already guaranteed $5,000,000 by the issue of city bonds, and by means of South park bonds, $500,000 more. Director General Davis said Tuesday night that the work of the fair would now go forward with a rush.

Plans for the buildings were already tentatively complete, and the definite location of each would be definitely settled without further delay. It only remained for the president of the United States to issue his formal proclamation to the nations of the world. This proclamation will doubtless shortly follow the meeting of the National commission, which is to be held in Chicago within a fortnight. The commission will certify to the president that Chicago has more than carried out the statutory requirement that the world's fair project should have an assured money support of $10,000,000.

The Great Majority

Of cases of scrofula and other blood diseases are hereditary, and therefore difficult to cure. But we wish to state in the most positive, emphatic manner that Hood's Sarsaparilla does cure scrofula in every form. The most severe cases, too terrible for description, have yielded to this medicine when all others failed. If you suffer from impure blood in any way, take Hood's Sarsaparilla.

THE republicans that gets any comfort in the election returns is easily satisfied. The democracy has everything but Cincinnati and that city isn't worth counting. For that matter Cincinnati is democratic when the republicans most need it.

TALK about advertising paying! The head of a local business firm dropped into the STAR office Wednesday and stopped his advertising, giving as a reason the statement that the STAR had actually brought them more business than they could attend to.

WE are ready to concede a mighty democratic victory, but when old Mr. Warwick talks of winning a glorious victory we conclude that he is away off—terribly off. Winning by 300 in a district democratic by 3,000 isn't a very great victory. No, republicans are surely in the soup, but they don't concede Warwick any glorious victory.

OUR news columns contain pretty complete election news, and it is all democratic. It is scarcely less than a democratic tidal wave. Not only the East and South step to the democratic free trade music, but the republicans are temporarily routed in the great West. This latter result, however, is largely due to local or state issues, like Wisconsin, for instance, where the republicans were forced to father the compulsory school law, much against party judgment.

Pennsylvania has rebuked Mr. Quay, and bossism has cost a striking defeat. Elsewhere the republican disaster can be attributed to scarcely anything other than the opposition to the McKinley bill. Whether this is a temporary revolt against the protection policy of the republican congress or not is yet to be seen. The defeat of republicans is quite overwhelming, and it may be one of the signs of the times. Its repetition in 1892 will be the call for the free trade plan that will have to be heard. That remains to be seen, however. Nearly every administration party has lost congress in the election between presidential canvasses, and this may be no exception to the general rule. Two years hence a fight can be made after a practical experience with the McKinley plan. It may be different.

THE MOVEMENT OF GLACIERS.

They Have Left Behind Mighty Paths by Which They Are Studied Today.

In high valleys, among the mountains whose tops are covered with perpetual snow, are often found seas of ice called "glaciers." They are formed thus: Snow that falls upon lofty mountains melts very little even in summer. So in valleys high up among the mountains it gathers to a great depth, and from the weight of the snow lying above the lower layers become icy, as a snowball does when squeezed. The upper crust melts a little during the heat of the day, and the water sinks down through the snow, and then freezes at night. From this melting and freezing the mass of snow is soon changed into a sea of ice.

Remember that when water freezes it expands. If we fill a bottle with water and let it freeze over night, in the morning we find that the bottle is cracked by the swelling of the ice. So it is with the water that forms glaciers. When it freezes it stretches and pushes its way down in whatever direction the valleys slope.

Glaciers of today are much smaller than the ice seas of long ago, but still in studying them we learn to understand the old glaciers.

In traveling down valleys those ancient glaciers left traces of their journey. Over all the places where the ice seas passed the rocks are rounded and highly polished. A field of these rounded rocks when seen from a distance, looks like a field filled with sheep crouching on the ground, and Swiss geologists have called them roches moutonnees—"sheep like rocks." In a valley along the summit of the Rocky mountains, near the "Mountain of the Holy Cross," there is a beautiful display of these polished, rounded rocks.

As the glaciers moved down the valleys, great rocks, frozen fast in the ice on the sides and at the bottom, scratched and marked other rocks as they passed by and over them. Sometimes these scorings are very broad and deep, for the immense rocks the glaciers carried were like strong, powerful tools in the grasp of a mighty engine; sometimes the lines are as fine as those of a fine engraving. They usually run all the one way, and by looking at the direction in which the lines run one can tell the direction in which the glacier moved.

In the sandstone west of New Haven, Conn., the deep, broad scorings can be plainly seen, running toward the southeast. The height at which these scratches occur tell us something of the depth of the ice.

Markings in the White mountains indicate that the ice was more than a mile deep over the region now known as northern New England.—Teresa C. Crofton in St. Nicholas.

other side came out in a wide poke in front. This hat was profusely trimmed with marabout feathers. On one hat were counted no less than nine birds. Many of the French hats are trimmed with flowers. The hats that are large and flat are known as plate shapes.

Turquois blue plays an all important part in millinery. One very small bonnet seen was composed of turquois and steel. Velvet will be a very popular material during the forthcoming winter. Tomato and capsicum colors, also a deep yellow, promise to be largely worn. A bonnet that exceeded all other queer shapes seen was heart shaped. It was made of blue velvet, and trimmed with black rosettes and birds.

In the accompanying cut are shown two imported bonnets. The first figure illustrates a bonnet of heliotrope velvet with a brim of applique black lace. Around the small and peculiar crown is a jet coronet, and jet drops edge the brim. The strings are of velvet. The remaining figure shows a bonnet in sapphire blue velvet, with black lace strings, the garniture is composed of lace, jet ornaments, a feather aigrette and twisted folds of velvet.

New Woolen Fabrics.

The new patterns and new fabrics for the coming season do not as yet point to any novel departure. Checks and stripes will both be worn, the checks large and the stripes irregular. One of the novelties is the checks and stripes with an astrakhan effect introduced, black and fleecy. A new stuff called drap St. Petersburg has a check formed with square, coarse stripes. The horizontal and perpendicular stripes are frequently of a totally different color, and in contrast to the ground. One of the most delightfully soft stuffs of the year is a pure, self colored vienna, made in over a dozen shades. Serge is always in fashion, and nearly every one has one serge dress at least in her wardrobe; the novelty is the Serpene Raye, or striped serge, with white and brown stripes on the blue ground, the colorings varying according to taste. A new tissue is "poile." It is checked and striped, and the patterns differ greatly. Some of the tailor tweeds are close and fine as cloth, only thicker, and others as rough and coarse as Bath blanketing.

An Item for the Masculine Sex.

It has been decided by the Association of Master Tailors of Paris and Lyons that the masculine sex is to lay aside its dark garments, and to appear henceforth clothed in lively colors. Coats are to be made in bright shades and there are to be gorgeous waistcoats, lace jabots and knee breeches and stockings to match. A ball will be given in Paris and Lyons during the course of the winter to inaugurate this revival of elegant clothes for men. Paris decrees the fashions for women, but from London comes the word that decides those for men, and London has not yet spoken in favor of many colored coats and knee breeches.

Evening and Dinner Dress.

For evening wear many of the best English gowns are made with polonaises, some with a few delicate gathers concentrated at the back just below the waist line. Lace is profusely used on some as bodice trimming. In the height of fashion are black gowns trimmed with jet and fur

It was once supposed that scrofula could not be eradicated from the system; but the marvelous results produced by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla disprove this theory. The reason is, this medicine is the most powerful blood purifier ever discovered.

Scrofula

Is the most ancient and most general of all diseases. Scarcely a family is entirely free from it, while thousands everywhere are its suffering slaves. Hood's Sarsaparilla has had remarkable success in curing every form of scrofula. The most severe and painful running sores, swellings in the neck or goitre, humor in the eyes, causing partial or total blindness, yield to the powerful effects of this medicine. It thoroughly removes every impurity from the blood.

[illegible] AND HYGIENE.

A [illegible] Which Is Said to Induce Sleep.

[illegible] successful discoveries in connection [illegible] constitute a remarkable [illegible] in medicine. From time to time [illegible] a few years new hypnotics [illegible] successfully introduced, and [illegible] one of the latest and most [illegible] be followed, it is claimed, by [illegible] excellent agent for the production [illegible]. This is termed chloralamid, and [illegible] chloral hydrate somewhat [illegible] to be lacking in a peculiar influence [illegible] the circulation which is characteristic of the latter. It is not caustic, has no [illegible] taste and the advantage [illegible] in its use is the production of sound [illegible] sleep.

Tests of Death.

It has recently been stated in various scientific and other journals that some ten or fifteen years ago a physician obtained a prize offered by the French Academy of Science for the discovery of some means by which the most inexperienced person might be able at once to ascertain whether life were really extinct in any given case. His method was as follows:

If the hand of the suspected dead person be held toward a candle or other artificial light, with the fingers extended and one touching the other, and one looks through the spaces between the fingers toward the light, there appears a scarlet red color where the fingers touch each other, due to the blood still circulating and showing itself through the tissues, if life has not yet ceased. When life is entirely extinct the phenomenon of scarlet space between the fingers at once ceases.

In commenting on the method in The Asclepiad Dr. B. W. Richardson pronounces the statement that the test is sufficient in itself as too solemn to be allowed to pass uncorrected. This test trusted to alone is capable of producing serious error. In the case of a person in a state of syncope, where the test was most carefully applied, there was not the faintest trace of red coloration between the fingers; yet recovery from the syncope was quite satisfactory without any artificial aid.

The test, being readily applied, is a good one to bring into operation, but for absolute proof of death Dr. Richardson enumerates the following as preferable: (1) The pulsation of the heart, (2) the respiratory murmur, (3) pressure on veins, (4) the electric test for muscular irritability, (5) the ammonia hypodermic test, (6) coagulation of blood in the veins, (7) rigor mortis, and (8) decomposition.

Butcher's Meat and Tuberculosis.

In an article relating to the Hebrew method of butchering and inspecting meat Dr. Henry Behrend, of London, calls attention to the great advantage of rigid meat inspections as a means of preventing tuberculosis, also to an alarming proportion of diseased animals, and an equally alarming lack of altruism in the Hebrew race as regards other races. He says: "Of 13,116 beeves slaughtered for the Hebrew trade in London in six months only 6,673 were deemed fit for Jewish use. The average rejections for five years have been 40 per cent., but these rejections are often sold to the Gentiles for food." In a large practice of over thirty years he has never met a case of consumption in a Hebrew, and other physicians make similar statements.

Items Worthy of Note.

It is a fallacy to suppose that the cravings of a patient are mere whims which should be denied. The stomach often needs, craves and digests articles not found in any dietary.

Sulphur fumigation, notwithstanding some opposition on the ground of inefficacy, is still highly recommended by the best authorities, says The Analyst, as the best disinfectant, after steam, for rooms, when properly done.

The excitement of being tossed and jumped by a too ardent papa, the glare of the dinner table or a tardy romping about the room often unstring the delicate nerves and chase away sleep from a delicate child.

Rubbing the hands well with almond oil each night and plastering them with as much fine chalk as they can take will usually whiten them in three days' time, if they are not past all hope.

It is very beneficial to clip the ends of the hair once a month, after it has been brushed smoothly down the back. After this all the forked ends that remain should be clipped, as while in this condition there will be no growth, but this is best done by a professional hairdresser.

SOCIAL ETIQUETTE.

A Suggestion to Prospective Entertainers. A Picturesque Mother Goose Party.

Among picturesque and pretty entertainments of the past summer The Art Interchange tells of a "Mother Goose party" which may interest prospective entertainers. The costumes embraced most of the characters in "Mother Goose" melodies, from the king and queen in "Sing a Song of Sixpence" down to little Miss Muffet, known to fame from her encounter with the spider. The hostess was dressed as Mother Goose, with her faithful bird under her arm. Bo Peep, Jack and Gill, the splendid group of beggars "in rags and tags and velvet gowns," the king, queen and knave of hearts were among the motley throng, and all the costumes were well chosen and well carried out. The supper was served on small tables scattered about in various places. The places were drawn by lots in the shape of small tickets, held in a gilt basket in the hands of Mother Goose herself. After supper a cotillion was danced at which many pretty favors appeared.

Asking for Invitations.

It is proper for intimate friends to ask for invitations for other friends to a ball, says Mrs. [illegible], particularly for young gentlemen who are "dancing men." More prudence should be exercised in behalf of ladies, for the hostess has always the privilege of saying that her list is full if she does not wish to invite her friends' friends, and no offense should be taken if the refusal be politely given.

"About two years ago, after suffering for nearly two years from rheumatic gout, being able to walk only with great discomfort, and having tried various remedies, including mineral waters, without relief, I saw by an advertisement in a Chicago paper that a man had been relieved of this distressing complaint, after long suffering, by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I then decided to make a trial of this medicine, and took it regularly for eight months, and am pleased to state that it has effected a complete cure. I have since had no return of the disease."—Mrs. R. Irving Dodge, 110 West 125th st., New York.

"One year ago I was taken ill with inflammatory rheumatism, being confined to my house six months. I came out of the sickness very much debilitated, with no appetite, and my system disordered in every way. I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla and began to improve at once, gaining in strength and soon recovering my usual health. I cannot say too much in praise of this well-known medicine."—Mrs. L. A. Stark, Nashua, N. H.

—Mat C. Coulter, of Bucyrus, is here today on business with the Huber Co.

—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hunter, of Agosta, were in the city today, on business and visiting their son, Jesse Hunter.

—Charley Wiant is nicely convalescing and will likely get down town in a day or two. His friends will rejoice to hear that he can soon be out.

—W. B. Kessler, of Green Camp, was in the city today, preparing for leaving that place for Shane's Crossing, Mercer county, Ohio. Of course Mr. Kessler called and fixed things to have the WEEKLY STAR sent him at his new home.

—The sidewalk on the Thew corner is being relaid with the old brick. This is another improvement that seems to disappoint. There was a hope that the day of brick walks had passed away and that we were to have an era stone. The new ordinance should be enforced upon all alike.

—The young ladies of the M. E. church wish the people to bear in mind that cakes of every description will be on sale at Miss Jennie Hopkins' residence, Nov. 26th, and that ladies who expect to entertain Thanksgiving day will find it to their advantage to purchase their cake there, as there will be a delicious display to select from. [thas

—See the most powerful military drama ever on the American stage, under the direction of Mr. H. H. Palmer, author and sole prop., who comes well recommended. He will take the leading role supported by Mr. Sam'l E. Smith and a carefully selected company of ladies and gentlemen of this city. The piece will be rendered under the auspices of the Sons of Veterans, and should be well patronized as it never fails to please all. The cause of its production is a most worthy one, the battle scenes, fire scene, elegant tableaux and Sargent McGinty, is sure to please you.

Relief for Hard Drinkers.

A gentleman in the city on other business is in posession of a secret remedy for the relief of slaves to liquor drinking. He was given the remedy under peculiar circumstances. A foreigner imparted to him the recipe while our visitor was once suffering himself, demanding a terrible oath of secrecy. This gentleman found great relief, having his appetite for drink wholly destroyed, and its good effects in his case led him to offer to furnish the remedy to any sufferers here for the actual cost of the medicine, which is but trivial. It is no advertisement or money making venture, but a desire to aid, at actual cost, those who have suffered as he has.

Ladies of the temperance unions, who desire to do practical work, might place this remedy at the disposal of some unfortunates within their knowledge. At any rate it is worth looking into. Parties calling at STAR office will be sent, in confidence, to the gentleman referred to.

A Site for Relic Hunters.

The ladies of the Christian church are holding a fine art exhibition at the City Hall. The hall is very nicely decorated, and many displays from business houses of this city are to be seen. They also have a large collection of old relics which are not only entertaining, but are really worth going to see. Most prominent among these are several copies of the Marion Daily Pebble, published in 1877, a dress of ye olden time and supposed to have been made over a century ago; a piece of stone from the Washington monument, and, in fact, one whole side of this department is filled with old keepsakes.

In another part of the hall the ladies have arranged to serve supper from 5 to 10 p. m.

All are cordially invited to attend and see this collection of fine art goods and old relics, and the ladies also invite you to take supper with them.

A Leg Fractured.

Frank Paddock, driver of the American Express wagon, had the misfortune to fall from his wagon Monday night, and so fell that the wheels passed over his right leg. A slight fracture was the result and Frank is suffering a pretty painful injury. He will be laid up for a week or more. The accident occurred on Main street, in front of Strelitz's clothing house.

A GOOD THING

A New Firm Desirous of Establishing a New Industry Here.

W. P. Wilkins was in the city Wednesday conferring informally with members of the Board of Trade in regard to the establishment of a Hub and Spoke factory here. Mr. Wilkins was here as a messenger from the firm of Crane & McMahon, of New York City, and expressed their desires in the matter. This firm owns the Wapakoneta Bent works, a prosperous industry, and want a similar institution here. Marion is considered a desirable point in the way of railroad factories and otherwise.

Mr. Wilkins saw several prominent members of the Board of Trade, and all expressed themselves as favorable to the enterprise. Such works would be quite advantageous to Marion, would employ 100 men and give a market for timber. It would also add a variety to Marion's industries.

Five acres of ground would be utilized for yards and building. The firm has had offers from other places but desires Marion to all others if small inducements can be offered. Crane & McMahon are responsible parties. They say they would be ready to locate here in the spring.

MOVING ALONG

The Prescott Railroad Equipment Company Organized—The Site Unsettled.

Matters relating to the organization of the Prescott Railroad Equipment Company and its location here are moving along nicely indeed. The company is already organized and has taken the name given above, but the officers are not chosen. Possibly only the secretary and treasurer will be allotted to Marion. Mr. Prescott, patentee of the splendid ditcher that is to be manufactured, has gone to Chicago to look after some details of organization, and will return here to open books for stock subscription next Monday. It is hoped to secure about $25,000 in subscriptions here.

The matter of a site is not yet settled. C. G. Harraman, who is actively engaged in getting the new deal in working order, says the outlook is very cheerful. Prominent manufacturers here are evincing a notable interest and there are all indications that the securing of another admirable industry for Marion is quite certain. It seems that there are interesting prospects for both stock subscribers and for Marion, whose continued progress is an ever pleasing theme.

To the Ladies of Marion.

You can find a full line of all the latest styles of hair goods at Mrs. C. Bower's 871 east South street, and all kinds of hair work done to order. Am prepared to fill orders on short notice. Ladies wishing to see me at their homes can drop postal in office.

THE SCAFFOLD GAVE WAY.

One Hundred and Fifty People Take a Sudden Drop.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—By the breaking of a scaffolding, raised ten feet from the ground, on which 150 men and girls were grouped for the purpose of being photographed, at Lyon & Healy's new piano factory yesterday, one man was killed, two probably fatally injured and several others badly hurt.

Following is list of killed and injured:

Killed:

William Kischangoil, 56 years old.

Injured:

August Haskel injured about chest, and is supposed his lungs are affected.

Dora Gifford, severe internal injuries.

John Cohles, ankle broken.

E. Grillul and John Radleis, ankles sprained.

TWO ENGINES COME TOGETHER.

A Wreck on the New York, Ontario and Western Railroad.

SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 6.—A wreck occurred on the New York, Ontario and Western railroad last night, at a point between Carbondale and Mayfield. An engine trying to make a switch crashed into a passenger train running at full speed in the opposite direction.

The engineer and fireman jumped and were only slightly injured. Charles Finnegan, a man named Burke and another, name unknown, all passengers, were killed and several other passengers severely injured.

Fatal Quarrel Over the Election.

RICHMOND, Ky., Nov. 6.—A serious difficulty occurred Tuesday at Irvine, in which John Wilson, superintendent of public schools and Dr. Lilley, son of Judge Lilly were killed. Grant Lilly was also seriously wounded. Several others were slightly hurt. No details were learned here save that it was over the election, one being a Republican and the other a Democrat.

The Last Straw.

A young man noticed with considerable anguish as he walked down town one morning that the straw hat he wore was absolutely alone in its glory. A rude boy called to him to "shoot the hat," and several friends made humorous remarks about "political straws," and "the last straw that broke the camel's back," and so on. The young man finally took refuge in a hat store, and exchanged four pieces of silver for a black derby.

He did not observe any particular change in the atmosphere, and the signal service flag denoting cooler weather with a higher temperature was still flying, but every other man he met was wearing a straw hat. A man to whom he owed $5 met him as he came out of the hat store, and remarked that he was glad some people could afford to buy new hats ahead of the season.

Perhaps you have noticed this phenomenon.—Chicago Special Press Bureau.

NOVELTIES IN BRIC-A-BRAC.

Cut glass decanters are now made particularly massive and brilliant.

Miniature novelties for favors are in the forms of game birds, storks, dogs, etc.

A vase in the shape of a pineapple, for center table decoration is one of the new things in glassware.

Banquet lamps are now made with bronze figures as supports. A pair lately shown has the figures of two warriors in full armor.

A brass lamp resting on a pedestal of onyx was recently exhibited. Pillars of brass and cut glass, supporting lamps, are also coming into use.

Tall lamps designed to represent Egyptian vases are now being made. The prevailing tints in globes and shades are the new corn color and lililite.

Light tables of brass are made in fancy shapes, the three leaved clover and the oval being the most usual. The tables are covered with variegated plush.

A neat traveling clock is made in gilt with an ornamental porcelain face and a leather case. By pressing a spring in the top of the clock at any time it will strike the hour.

A new piano lamp has for a support an Oriental dancer holding a wand, on which the lamp is placed. The figure is about three feet in height and leans gracefully on the staff.

A handsome clock in onyx and gilt has been recently exhibited. It is a mantel clock and rests on a pedestal of onyx, handsomely mounted in gilt, the whole standing about four feet high.

A handsome piece of work in Dresden ware represents a dancing girl, seated and playing on a guitar. The figure is without a pedestal and is intended to rest on a table, shelf or any other convenient place.

The grotesque figures which are generally associated with Rip Van Winkle's ghostly companions in his celebrated vigil have of late been brought forward in bisque. One group of three such figures, called the "Razzle Dazzle," was recently exhibited.—Jewelers' Weekly.

How I succeed in business is a question which is easy for me to answer. In the first place, I do not advertise things that I can not do. I do not say that I will give you a suit or any other article for so much which is worth so much more. No man living man can do that, and he who advertises that is deceiving you and of such people beware. I ask a fair and living profit, which is necessary to carry on a fair and square business. Another reason is this: Everything in this house is marked in plain figures and that is strictly the price, be the buyer the richest or poorest man in Marion county. The largest line of Suits and Overcoats in the county is found at my store and I'll guarantee the prices on everything I sell.

—Howard Jury, Erie yard foreman is laying off from duty on account of sickness.

—Mrs. Martin Lee and son Homer, of Kenton, spent Wednesday evening in this city.

—The Marion Social Club will give a ball, to be followed by a banquet Nov. 19th, at City Hall.

—Harry Scribner is able to be about the house again, after being confined to his bed for a week.

—Postmaster General Wanamaker is interested in a case now pending a hearing in common pleas court.

—Clint Lauer, the fat Erie conductor, of Galion, was calling on his many friends here Wednesday evening.

—W. W. Dunnivant, general Erie passenger agent, was looking after the passenger traffic here Wednesday.

—With the exception of two chimneys the brick work is complete on the new Epworth M. E. church. It is also partly under roof.

—The next entertainment of the lecture course will be a concert given by the Schubert Quartette, of Chicago, who appear here Nov. 21.

—Charles Drew and wife are at Columbus today attending the wedding of Mrs. Drew's sister, Miss Mame Graff, to Charles VanHyde.

—Engineer Frank Fluent, of the Erie, spent Wednesday night in this city. Frank handles the throttle on the 600 one of the Erie's best engines.

—L. Earley, who is employed here by R. Ackerman the barber, was compelled to leave for his home in Mt. Gilead Tuesday, on account of sickness.

—Crawford's educated dogs will be at Music Hall next Monday and Tuesday evenings, Nov. 10 and 11. The admission is but 25c and 35c and children 15c.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Waldman have returned from Galion, after a few days' visit. They were accompanied by Mrs. Waldman's sister, who will visit here a few days.

—Here is some consolation for Marion county republicans. Morgan L. Carpenter was elected justice of the peace at Prospect, Tuesday, by a majority of one vote.

—The time of court was occupied Wednesday afternoon by arguing motions. The case of M. B. Chase, administrator, against Bryan Maloney, was begun this morning.

—A wheel came off the city hose cart this morning, on west South street, while a practice run was being made. The horses were under perfect control and no great damage resulted.

—George W. Furrow and Miss Minnie Carnell, George W. Emeston and Miss Ellen Moore, were licensed to marry Wednesday, in addition to the four other couples already announced, making six issues in one day.

—With election over it is policy to look after health. There is still room to join the club that is to test the new theory of disease as advanced by the Kelly Medicine Company. Particulars and consultations may be had at Hoberman's drug store Memberships cost but one dollar.

—The Rineharts did not draw a good house at Music Hall Wednesday evening, and this may have accounted for the apparent carelessness to please on the part of the performers. The singing and dancing was good, that of the younger members of the company being especially pleasing. The Rineharts are an entertaining company, but were evidently not at their best Wednesday night.

—Dr. Raffensperger has at his home a strange little pet, which he has been caring for several weeks, and which lives among his plants and flowers. It is nothing more than a butterfly, of the brown, striped wing variety. The Doctor feeds his pet on sugar and water two or three times a week. It eats from his hand, and nothing will frighten it away while it is thus regaling itself. Mr. Raffensperger is making an effort to keep the little beauty through the winter.

Kelly's Expectations

(Mt. Vernon Republican.)

The company played last night to a fair-sized audience, presenting an uproarious and laughable comedy, and some very excellent specialties. The trapeze [illegible] were a very enjoyable feature, and the juggling was clever. The band carried by the company is good, and the orchestral music was fully up to the average. The comedy is a mixture of Irish, German and Negro wits without plot, and for those who like a rough-and-tumble performance it will prove an attraction.

Kelly's Expectations will be at Music Hall Saturday evening.
